

"Choosing the Future"

Collective

Kansas City Sorcerous Arts

Hekate Phosphoros

stands at the crossroads with torches in each hand. She illuminates our path and her blinding light burns away falsehoods and doubt. Her light allows us to see ourselves clearly, which can be frightening. But in it we can also see the web of connections between each one of us and the future we desire.

Literally: Lightbearer (as in torches)

WHO ARE YOU PEOPLE?

IT IS ... ALL WELL AND GOOD

Seeing Clearly with Hekate Phosphoros

What you will need:

- A candle
- A pin/tool to scratch a sigil into the wax
- Incense or cleansing agent of your choice (ie salt water)
- divination tool, if you wish

Ritual Steps:

- set your intentions. Choose a path, a person (yourself even!), or a question that you need clarity on.
- cleanse your materia, the candle, the carving tool, etc
- Carve the sigil and say the prayer on the next page.
- Light the candle, focus on your question. You may use the flame to scry or use a divination tool of your choosing to gain clarity on the subject.
- Let the candle burn down in a safe location.

Prayer to Hekate Phosphoros

Hekate Phosphoros! In bitter

sorrow and ecstatic joy, I call

Hekate Phosphoros! In black despair and fervent hope, I call you!

You stand at the crossroads to illuminate our path. Bring us your torchlight. Hekate Phosphoros, illumine the dark corners and let

see clearly!
